1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the situation.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to define the objectives and goals of the project. This helps to clarify what needs to be achieved and provides a clear direction for the team.

3. The third step is to develop a plan or strategy to address the problem. This involves breaking down the problem into smaller, manageable tasks and determining the resources needed to complete them.

4. The fourth step is to implement the plan. This involves putting the strategy into action and monitoring progress to ensure that the project is on track.

5. The final step is to evaluate the results of the project. This involves assessing the outcomes against the objectives and goals and identifying any lessons learned for future projects.

Possibly Incomplete Lists of Veterans of All Wars

Who have lived in Wasatch County:

Utah Indian Wars: (1824-1923) + Echo or Utah War

(There were many skirmishes, raids and outright wars waged after the arrival of the Pioneers into Utah. For the most part, Wasatch County residents were not involved in any of them, except The Echo War (or Utah War), the Battle Creek (or Pleasant Grove War), The Wasatch County Raids, and Black Hawk War. Our residents were not involved in the Tintic War, Gosiute War, Bear River conflict, Salt Creek Canyon murders, or the last Indian War in America, in Blanding, Utah, called the Posey War. So the following is a list of the Indian War Veterans, as organized on 26 May in 1866, in Heber City, by Col. Robert T. Burton and David J Ross of the Utah Territorial Militia, with orders from General Daniel H Wells. All available men were organized into four Companies, comprising the Wasatch County Militia of the Utah Territorial Militia).

The veterans of the Black Hawk War, which commenced in 1865, comprise most of the early male pioneer settlers in Wasatch County and are as follows:

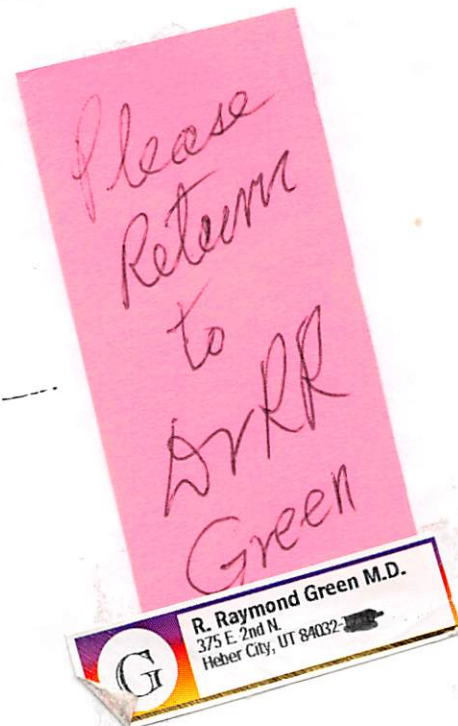

Battalion staff officers commanding the Wasatch County Militia:

John W. Witt, Major
John Hamilton, Major
